

In the plot above:

- the shading reflects the probability $y=1$ (result prior to decision boundary)
- the decision boundary is the line at which the probability = 0.5